

Le Ray monthly meeting of friends, her company and religious exercises have been very acceptable to us.
A minute was also read for David Gardner an elder, companion to his wife Persis Gardner, from Le Ray No. 100.

Our beloved friend Jno. Scott laid before this meeting a concern which had rested with him for some time past, for religious labor within the limits of our own Yearly Mtg., his monthly meeting having liberated him for the service.

The meeting fully united with his concern, and he was encouraged to proceed, trusting in the Lord for strength. The clerk of this meeting is directed to unite with the clerk of men's meeting in signing a minute to this effect.

The 1st, 2nd & 9th queries and answers were read and the following summary answers adopted as representing the present state of the meeting.

An epistle from Dublin Yearly Meeting addressed to our last Yearly Meeting was acceptably read.

The meeting concluded Mary W. Thomas Clerk.

Answers to the Queries

1st Answer

All our meetings for worship and discipline have been held except within the limits of Hopewell No. 100, which report states that their meetings for worship have been generally held at the house of John Griffith and two meetings for discipline have been omitted. Our meetings on First day morning and in the middle of the week are generally well attended those held on First day afternoon continue small. No unbecoming behavior remarked and the hour
