

in his religious visit to Balt. & North Carolina Yearly Mtgs.

The company and religious services of these dear friends have been truly acceptable to us.

All the queries were read and the answers from the subordinate meetings, and the following summary answers agreed upon to represent the present state of this meeting which were directed to be forwarded in our report to the Yearly Mtgs. to attend which as our representatives we have appointed

Ann J. Matthews	Ann R. Schofield
Mary Wright	Rachel Brooks
Sarah H. Journey	Mary P. Griffith
Clarissa Russell	Harrah R. Hopkins
Mary Williamson	Rebecca C. Thomas who were directed to pay the sum of $8.75 to the Yearly Mtgs. stock and report to the next Quarterly Mtgs.

Lucius

1st Ans. Our meetings for worship and discipline have been held, and attended by most of our members; except within the limits of Hopewell Co. Mtgs. where the report states midnight meetings and some for discipline have been omitted, owing to the unsettled state of the country.

Unbecoming behavior generally avoided and the hour of meeting strictly observed.

2nd Ans. We believe Friends generally maintain love towards each other, becoming our Christian profession. False bearing and deception, mostly discouraged.

No apparent differences amongst us.

3rd Ans. Some Friends endeavor by example and precept, to educate their children and those under their care, in plain-ness of speech deportment and apparel.

To guard them against reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world - and they are encouraged frequently to read the Holy Scriptures.
