Baltimore - Matilda Reed, Susan B. Greaney, Eliza H. Cranshaw, & Elizabeth R. Hopkins - Horseshoe - Mary P. Griffith - Deer Creek - Sarah W. Harris & Annie D. Thompson

The Representatives were all present.
Our dear friend Caroline E. Feltwell was with us again at our Quarterly Mtg. her company and religious services have been truly acceptable to us.

The 1st. Inq. & 9th Inquiries were read with the answers from the monthly meetings, and the following answers adopted as representing the present condition of this meeting.

1st Answer

All our meetings for worship and discipline have been held and generally well attended, altho' one report states the midweek meetings are small - Unbecoming behavior mostly avoided - One report mentions that the hour of meeting is not so well observed as would be desirable.

2nd Answer

each other becoming our Christian profession.
Slandering and detraction generally discouraged.
When differences arise endeavours are used speedily to end them.

9th Answer.

Care is generally taken to deal with offenders seasonably and impartially, and to revive in those who will not be reclaimed the spirit of meekness and love before judgment is placed upon them.

The committee appointed at our last Mtg to propose the names of two friends to serve this meeting as clerks the ensuing year reported that they had conferred together and were united in proposing the reappointment of Mary W. Thomas as clerk and Clarissa Davis as assistant clerk, which being united with they were appointed to the service for the ensuing year.

The clerk reported that the Minutes & Epistles were sent down to the mo meetings as directed.

The Minutes of the last Mtg were read.

The Extracts from the minutes of the late Women's Yearly Mtg. were read.

Then concluded
