

We believe Friends maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession. Jealousy and detraction mostly discouraged - No apparent differences amongst us -

Third answer

We believe Friends endeavor by example and precept to bring up their children and those under their care in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. And to some extent in the plainness and simplicity which the Gospel enjoins - they endeavor to guard them against reading pernicious books, and from the corrupt conversation of the world, and they are encouraged frequently to read the Holy Scriptures. One report states that there is need for more earnest attention to the important requisitions of this Query -

Fourth answer

Friends generally maintain our testimony to a free Gospel ministry agreeably to our discipline -

Fifth answer

We believe Friends are careful to observe the several requisitions of this Query.

Sixth answer

We think Friends are careful in these respects as queried after.

Seventh answer

Clear in regard to the forefront of this Query - those of the African race under our care are suitably provided for and they are instructed in useful learning.

Eighth answer

We believe Friends are mostly careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage, just in their dealings and punctual in complying with their engagements - and where any give reasonable grounds for fear in these respects due care is extended to them -

Ninth answer