

W. Russell Mary Wright
See back. Mary L. Edge & Fanny Morris Voluntary - Jane Moore - The representatives were present except three for whose absence reasons were assigned.

The 1st and 10 queries were read with the answers from the Ans. only. and the following summary answers were adopted as representing the present state of the meeting - Then concluded

1st Answer

All our meetings for worship and discipling have been well & duly attended excepting one omitted owing to inclement weather.
One report mentions a want of punctuality - No unbecoming behavior to remark.

2nd Answer

We believe friends maintain love to each other becoming our Christian profession. Self bearing and distraction discouraged. No known differences.

10th Answer

Case is taken to deal with offenders.

impurities and in the spirit of moderation and love - but one report states some cases not so seasonably dealt with as might be best.

At Baltimore Quarterly Meeting held in Balt. 10th mo. 19th 1877

For reports from the monthly meetings the following named friends have been appointed representatives -

Baltimore - Sarah R. Elliott, Susan B. Briggs, Mary Roberts & Mary R. Nicholson.

Baltimore - Phila. Edge & Mary Wright
See back. Fanny R. Hopkins, William L. Edge, Voluntary E. Perkins.

The Representatives were present except one friend who was prevented by indisposition.

Minutes were read for the following friends Caroline E. Elliott a Minister from Short Creek Monthly meeting ordered by Short Creek Quarterly Meeting.

Elizabeth L. Linnick a Minister from Baltimore Monthly meeting ordered by Baltimore Quarterly Meeting.