

towards each other becoming our Christian profession. Tale bearing and detraction are discouraged. When differences arise endeavors are used to end them.

First Answer

We believe care is taken to deal with offenders seasonably and impartially and in the spirit of meekness and love.

At Baltimore Quarterly Meeting of Women
Friends held at Deer Creek Oct. 10th 1889

The clerk being absent Mary H. Thomas was appointed clerk for the day.

By reports from the monthly mtgs the following named friends have been appointed representatives -

Baltimore - Susan R. Matthews, Anna Reed

Augusta L. Matthews, Jane P. Milton Elizabeth R. Hopkins & Sophia Hopkins.

Hopewell - Lydia Wright & Mary S. Cochran

Deer Creek - Eliza Hopkins & Annie H. Thompson

Potomac - Elizabeth Matherald

The representatives were present except for friends, for whose absence reasons were assigned.

The first, second and tenth queries were read with the answers from the monthly meetings and the following summary answers adopted as representing the state of the meeting at this time.

The first unanswered query was read and solemnly considered.

The London General Epistle was read and was acceptable to the meeting.

Then concluded

Mary H. Thomas Clerk for the Day

First Answer

All our meetings for worship and discipline have been duly and punctually attended by most of our members. Unbecoming behavior therein avoided.

Second Answer

We believe friends maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession tale bearing and detraction discouraged no apparent differences amongst us.
