A minute was read from Dublin Monthly Meeting Ireland for Mary Anne Marriage Allen an overseer, releasing her to labour among the coloured people of the United States, or other service for the Lord. Her company was very acceptable, and we believe her services in the South have been blessed. Anna B. Thomas, Mary W. Thomas and Susan R. Matthews were appointed to unite with a Committee of men friends in preparing her a minute of sympathy and approval.

Our friend Rufus P. King was acceptably with us with a minute which was not given.

Then adjourned

"Susan R. Matthews" Clerk.
