Clerk for the day.

Summary Answers.

1.

All our meetings for worship and discipline have been held and well attended, except one for discipline at Hopewell. First day evening meetings are small in Baltimore, and more punctuality is desirable on the part of some. Unbecoming behavior is generally avoided.

2.

We believe Friends maintain love towards each other, becoming our Christian profession; tale-bearing and detraction are discouraged, and when differences arise, care is taken to end them.

3.

We believe most Friends endeavor by example and precept to bring up their children and those under their care in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, and to some extent, in that plainness and simplicity of life which the Gospel enjoins. They endeavor to guard them against reading pernicious books, and from the corrupt conversation of the world, and they are encouraged frequently to read the Holy Scriptures.

4.

Friends maintain our testimony to a free Gospel ministry, agreeably to our discipline.

5.

We believe Friends maintain our testimony against the use of all intoxicating liquors. One report makes some exception regarding the latter part of this query.

6.

The necessities of the poor, and the circumstances of those who appear to require aid, are inspected and relief extended.

7.

Friends' children generally attend schools, and when practicable are placed at schools under the care of Friends.

8.

Clear as regards the several requirements of this query.

9.

We believe Friends are clear in regard to this query.

10.

Care is taken to deal with offenders seasonably and
