1st Summary

All our meetings have been held, except 4 at Hopewell; 2 for worship and 2 for discipline, one omitted at Patuxent during Yearly Meeting week, and 3 on account of storms in winter. There is some want of punctuality mentioned in 2 reports, and one report states that the meetings have not been as generally attended by our members as would be desired. And a very slight exception to the behavior in one - Baltimore Evening Meeting ^{Small}

2nd Summary -

We believe Friends have love one to another in accordance with our Christian profession. We do not know of any tale bearing, detraction or differences amongst us -

3rd Summary

We believe Friends endeavor by example and precept to bring up their children and those under their care, in the nurture & admonition of the Lord; and to some extent, in that simplicity of life which the Gospel enjoins. They are counseled against pernicious reading and corrupt associations, and they are encouraged to read the Holy Scriptures.

4th Summary

We believe Friends maintain our testimony to a
