

following summary answers were adopted, and directed to be forwarded to the Yearly Meeting, to attend which as our Representatives we have appointed:

Mary Wright, Mary Anna Griffith, Mary Susan Cochran, Rachel Brooks, Elizabeth R. Hopkins, Mary S. Thomas, Lydia W. Haviland, Anna Scofield, Rachel Leverly, Cosmelia J. Hughes, Elizabeth H. Piggott, Cornelia N. Stabler, Annie S. Stabler.

The reading of the Minutes of last meeting was omitted because of limited time, the meeting being informed by the Clerk that there was no unfinished business to take up.

A proposition was received from Men Friends to ~~meet~~ come together in joint session after other business had been transacted to consider a Minute sent up from Baltimore Monthly Meeting; and to hear the Memorials sent from Deer Creek and Baltimore Monthly Meetings of our late beloved Friends John Scott and Mary Whitall Thomas.

After the shutters were raised, the following Minute was read, and the meeting decided that the time had not come in their judgment for any alteration in the present arrangements of the Quarterly Meetings.

Minute of Baltimore Monthly Meeting (Women)

Men Friends informed this meeting that they had instructed their Representatives to request the Quarterly Meeting to appoint a Committee to take under consideration the propriety of changing the time and places of holding the Quarterly Meetings, with which this meeting united.

Balto. 9th mo. 6th. 1888

M. H. Elliott, Clerk.

A Memorial of our late beloved Friend John Scott, a Minister was read and approved, and the Clerk directed to forward it to Baltimore Representative Meeting.

A Memorial of our late beloved Friend, Mary Whitall Thomas, a Minister, was read and approved, and the Meeting directed that it should be forwarded to the Representative Meeting with such alterations as the Committee might see best to make.

The reading of these Memorials brought the Meeting into a sweet and solemn feeling, and testimonies were given to the faith and courage of these servants of the Lord, and to the help and inspiration that they had been to many. Praise and thanksgiving were offered for what God had wrought by them, and earnest petitions that others might likewise consecrate themselves to the Lord, to be used in
