

speedily to end them

10th Summary Answer

When necessary to deal with offenders it is done in the spirit of meekness and love.

At Baltimore Quarterly Meeting of Friends held at Howell, Md, 9th month 10th. 1894, in joint session.

The Clerks being absent (for whose absence reasons were given) John Nicholson and Elizabeth L. Hopkins were appointed Clerks for the day.

By reports from the Monthly Meetings the following Friends were appointed representatives

(Women)

From Baltimore Monthly Meeting - Rachel Brooks, Elizabeth L. Hopkins Clarissa Davis and Katherine M. Breith From Deer Creek - Clara D. Smith and Anne R. Thompson.

From Howell - Mary J. Cochran and Mary Anna Griffith

" Pasture - Elizabeth Ketherald.

" Ashdown - Cornelia Staker, Lydia R.
Haviland and Louisa S. Brooke

" Lincoln - Harriet A. Gregg, Sara H.
Boye, Elizabeth D. Piggott and Mary C.
Hughes, who were present except for the absence of whom reasons were given.

All of the queries were read, with answers in writing from each of the monthly meetings, and the following summary adopted as representing the present state of this meeting, which our clerks were directed to sign on our behalf and forward to the ensuing Yearly Meeting, to attend which as our representatives we have appointed (women) Rachel Brooks, Clarissa Davis, Elizabeth L. Hopkins, Jane P. Edge, Anna
R. Thompson, Clara D. Smith, Mary H. Cook, Mary Anna Griffith, Rachel Knight, Mary
J. Cochran, Elizabeth Ketherald, Lydia R.
Haviland, Anna D. Staker, Louisa S. Brooke, Cornelia Staker, Harriet A. Gregg, Miriam Thompson and Sara H. Boye, who are directed