

lived in subjection to the Spirit of Christ, that illustrates and enforces the doctrines of the Gospel.

He was interested with his Friends not only in work within the limits of his own Meeting, but in various parts of the Yearly Meeting, where his clear judgment and good counsel were always of much value. He was punctual and constant in his attendance of all meetings, frequently taking part in them in the expression of his personal faith in Christ, or in words of exhortation and encouragement to others.

He was for many years Clerk of Baltimore Monthly Meeting, of Baltimore Quarterly Meeting, and Assistant Clerk of Baltimore Yearly Meeting. He was also first an Overseer and afterwards an Elder of Baltimore Monthly Meeting. Although a Friend, and able to give a reason for his conviction, he was deeply interested in the Christian work of other denominations, and his courtesy of manner and kindness of heart endeared him to every one. Interested in all his fellow-members, he was constantly thoughtful of them, and endeavored by words of encouragement and warning to give them the help of his unfailing sympathy. His loss is deeply felt by his Friends and the Meeting. The words of the first Psalm seemed wonderfully applicable to him in his whole life: "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in His law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither, and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

The foregoing memorial of Baltimore Monthly Meeting was received from Baltimore Quarterly Meeting, and our Clerk was directed to lay it before the Yearly Meeting.
