

192

answers from the Monthly Meetings, and the following answers adopted.

Summary 6 Mo., 12, 1899.

Ans. 1. All our meetings for worship + discipline have been held: those for worship have been attended by most of our members; one report says that meetings for discipline have been neglected by many. Nearly all reports speak of some lack of punctuality. Unbecoming behavior has been avoided.

Ans. 2. Friends have love one toward another in accordance with our Christian profession, except that there is some qualification in some of the reports. Tale-bearing + detraction are discouraged and when any differences arise endeavors are used to end them.

Ans. 10. Several reports indicate that no case has arisen under this query. When occasion arises care is generally taken as queried after. The Committee on Conferences made the following report.

The Committee in charge of arranging for Conferences report that a Conference was held at Darlington, 7th day Evening, 6th mo, 10.

193

The subject for consideration was "Difficulties in the way of believing and how to overcome them," introduced by a paper written by Viola Horisberg followed by an address by Dr. R. H. Thomas and remarks by others. The Conference was felt to be an interesting and profitable occasion.

On behalf of Committee
Rachel M. Hopkins
A. Morris Carey

The Committee to take into consideration the method of receiving members made the following report, which was approved, + our Friend S. R. Heave was requested to forward it as a suggestion to the Sub-Committee of the Quinquennial Conference for its consideration.

To The Quarterly Meeting.

The committee appointed to take into consideration the question of the method of receiving members has held two meetings at both of which all but two of its members were present and the subject was very fully gone into.

In view of the proposed uniform Discipline, a draft of which may soon be submitted to the