

To The Evening Quarterly Meeting to be held in Baltimore. In unity with the Ancient Yearly Meeting of Friends,

Dear Friends,

The Queries were read, and answers adopted to forward to the Quarterly Meeting, as nearly representing the state of this Meeting, And the following named Friends, appointed to attend Therewith as our representatives, viz Thomas Scott, and Robert Northland,

Answer 1st All our Meetings have been held, for worship and discipline, And attended by most of our members on first days, Weekdays sometimes small, no undecorous behavior to remark, And the hour of Meeting nearly observed, Ans 2nd Friends appear to maintain love towards each other becoming, our Christian profession, Talebearing, and detraction discouraged, no apparent differences amongst us,

Ans 3rd Friends mostly appear careful by example and precept, to Educate their Children, and those under their care, in plainness of speech, deportment, and apparel, Yet more care we believe would be profitable Some care is taking against reading pernicious books, and from the corrupt conversation of the world, And are encouraged to read the holy Scriptures,

Ans 4th Our testimony, against distilled spirituous liquors, appear to be maintained agreeable to discipline, Frequenting taverns, or attending places of diversion mostly avoided, And Moderation and temperance mostly observed,

Ans 5th No poor that require aid among us, or children that require schooling,

Ans 6th Friends maintain their testimony against an hierarchy Ministry, Oaths, Military services, clandestine trade, Prize goods, and Loteries, as far as appears,
