

the same Place under some instructions for the instruction

deal with offenders

Children for tuition under this direction we are no longer excepted by suitable
with us

that the following be quarterly meeting

the appointed to consider the situation of our Discipline of Separatists Report, that there is within our borders,

Monthly Meetings formerly except one, that in many places there are now no Discipline, nor any they can look for aid we are united in the
made in our present with our Christian much relief to the sufferers which it now clear conviction therefore free to following as all the minor children of those who joined in the separation from Communion and fellowship with the Society of Friends in the Year 1828 & who shall after they arrive at age and after the adoption of this Rule attend the meetings of the Separatists shall be considered as having thereby relinquished a right of membership with our Religious Society, and if any of these should afterwards become concerned to be again united to the Society, they are to state in writing to the Monthly Meeting within whose limits they reside, that they have from religious conviction and a sense of duty withdrawn from communion and fellowship with those who have separated from Communion with the Ancient Society of Friends, and that they are desirous of being re-instated in Membership - when if on due consideration Monthly Meetings are satisfied with the sincerity of the party; the same being also manifested by a conduct circumspect & correct is tent with our profession, they are again to be received into Membership:

Extracted from the Minutes

Samuel Carey
Clerk