At Hopewell Monthly Meeting of Friends in unity with friends, held at Goose Creek the 5th of 3 mo: 1840. The 1st, 2nd and 9th queries were read, and considered, and the following answers adopted —

1st Answer) All our meetings for Worship and Discipline have been held and generally attended by most of our members (one meeting for Worship excepted which friends could not attend, owing to the drifts of snow, which rendered the roads impassable) unbecoming behaviour in meeting mostly avoided, and the hour of meeting nearly attended to —

2nd Answer) Friends appear to maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession, talebearing and detraction discouraged, no apparent differences amongst us. — 9th) Endeavours are used to deal with offenders in the manner recommended —

To Baltimore Quarterly Meeting of Friends in unity in unity with the ancient Yearly Meetings of Friends to be held 12th of 3 mo
