

23

To Baltimore Quarterly Meeting

Dear Friends, All the Queries were read in this Meeting and the following answers adopted, as, nearly representing the present state of this Meeting, to be forwarded to our next Quarterly Meeting, to attend which as our representatives, we appoint Isaac Brooks, Joseph King jr. John Dukehart and Richard H. Thomas.

1st Ans^r All our Meetings for worship & discipline have been held, those on first day morning are generally well attended by most of our Members. Other Meetings both for worship and discipline are neglected by some, no unbecoming behavior to remark; and the hour of Meeting nearly observed by most Friends.

2nd Ans^r Friends generally maintain love towards each other becoming our religious profession, tale-bearing and detraction are discouraged and when differences arise endeavors are used to end them.

3rd Ans^r Most Friends endeavor by example & precept to educate their children, and those under their care, in plainness of speech, deportment and apparel; to guard them against reading pernicious books, and from the corrupt conversation of the world; and we believe they are encouraged frequently to read the Holy Scriptures. There are many departures, however, from the simplicity of our profession in dress & address.