

When the effect of their control, would miserably have a tendency to produce continued uneasiness and dissatisfaction.

We wish not to take up the attention of the Yearly Meeting, or its committee unnecessarily. Nature cannot well forbear, expressing the painful sensations that have been introduced to our meeting, whenever the subject was produced by them.

A respectful attention to the communication of a neighbouring monthly meeting was demanded on the one hand, when on the other hand, we had reason to believe it was gratifying a disposition governed by Interest, and if submitted to, would be violating a principle of right, the ex-ample of which might in future be looked up to and produce difficulties in other branches of the Yearly meeting.

Before the commencement of their claims, we were disposed, that they should enjoy the liberty of Interment of their deceased members with us, so long as they chose, free of expense untill they pro-vided otherwise, but we did not think it right that the privileges of our Meeting, should be infringed upon thereby, when the sense of the Yearly Meeting was obtained on the subject, we were satisfied with the conclusion and wished to remain quiet. But that meeting has referred it for an explination, without our consent or approbation.

We now submit the further explination thereof to those who have a right to act thereon, not doubting but Justice will be administered, & the Rights of the Monthly meeting for the Eastern District, established.

14th of the 11th Month 1811.

The Following was produced from the Quarterly Meeting.

At Baltimore Quarterly meeting held the 4th of the 11th Month 1811.

One of the committee appointed to attend on the request, forwarded to the Yearly Meeting for an explination of the decision of that meeting in relation to the Burying grounds situate at the eastern end of this City, reported, they nearly all attended, and the following explanatory minute being produced and read, the clerk was direc-ted to forward a copy thereof to each of the monthly meetings concerned, Signed on Behalf
