

hold the property and lots above described to them, their heirs, and assigns forever, saving to all and every person their several and respective rights, and it was thereby provided and enacted that the said property and lots should be held and enjoyed for a meeting house, yard, stabling, burying ground, school house, and dwelling house and small garden to accommodate said schoolmaster, or person taking care of said property and for no other use or purpose whatever

And whereas the society constituting the monthly Meeting of Baltimore for the Eastern District in the City of Baltimore, by their memorial and petition to this general assembly have set forth that many years ago, the above mentioned lots and property were conveyed to John Cornthwaite and others in trust for the uses mentioned in the above recited act; that since the passing of the aforesaid act, most of the trustees have died; and that the aid of this legislature is deemed necessary to perpetuate the said trust.

Wherefore

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all the estate, right, and title acquired by the several deeds of trust, executed for the benefit of the aforesaid society of people called Quakers, of, in and unto the lots ground and property before mentioned, be, and the same is, hereby vested in John Trimble, John Dukehart, William Husband, Ely Balderston, Thomas Matthews David Brown and William Roeter, their heirs, and assigns, in trust for the same uses and purposes as are mentioned in the act of Assembly above referred to, and to and for no other use or purpose whatsoever, saving to all and every person & persons, their several and respective rights provided always, and be it enacted, that it shall be the duty of the trustees above named, or the survivors of them, whenever called upon, or required by the said Monthly Meeting so to do, to transfer the trust hereby reposed in them, to such other trustees, as the said Monthly Meeting may name and appoint; which said new trustees when chosen, shall hold the said property subject to the like provision, as are herein before contained; so that the said trust may and shall be perpetuated and transmitted in manner aforesaid, from time to time forever
