

that the Quarterly Meeting, will readily discover the disposition that would govern if given way to —

We shall now close the present narrative with observing how painful it is to be thus reluctantly drawn into a circumstance of this nature (which has been the case in every stage of it since its commencement) wherein we have acted, only on the principle of our own defence and with a view to elucidate a subject on which we believe that we have hitherto been but partially heard —

Extracted from the minutes by direction of the Monthly Meeting of Baltimore for the Eastern District held the 14th of the 11th month 1814 —
