

degrees East bounding on a line of William Clarke's land sixty five feet six inches to the present great road leading from the City of Baltimore to Brownells bridge on the great Falls of Lumpowder, thence bounding on the line of the said road North forty degrees East twenty feet, thence North forty eight degrees West till it intersects the line of the East end of the said burying ground, thence bounding on said line to the Beginning, corner stone being part of a Tract of Land called Darby Hall, conveyed to the said William Armitage by a certain John Merryman by Indenture of bargain and Sale bearing equal date with these presents, Together with the appurtenances and advantages to the same belonging or in anywise appertaining.

And also all the Estate, right, title, interest, claim, and demand of the said William Armitage therein or thereto, To Have and To Hold the said piece or parcel of ground above described and premises with their appurtenances unto the said Gerrard T. Hopkins, Isaac Tyson, John Dukehart and John Trimble (of Isaac) their heirs and assigns forever. Upon Trust. Nevertheless and for the several ends intents and purposes hereafter mentioned (that is to say) In the first place that the said piece or parcel of ground shall and continue to be for the use and service of the said Congregation called Quakers forever, Provided always that neither the said Gerrard T. Hopkins, Isaac Tyson, John Dukehart, and John Trimble (of Isaac) or any person or persons