

16.
to my Grand Daughter Clara Young, another sixth part to my Grand Daughter Ann Young, one ^{other} sixth part to my Grand Daughter Mary Young and one other sixth part to my Grand Son William Young, and to reserve the other sixth part to himself And Whereas, the said Robert Young Stokes, did sometime in the year Seventeen hundred and Eighty three, Lay of the said Four Acres of Land into Six Equitable Lots, agreeable to the will of his said Grand Father William Young, and Whereas the said Robert Young Stokes, by his last will and Testament did bequeath one sixth part of said Land to the said William Young, and one other sixth part to the said Mary Young by the Numbers, Five and Six - Agreeable to a plat made for that purpose by George Goldsmith Presbury, then surveyor of Baltimore county, And Whereas, part of the said Two Lots bequeathed to the said William Young and 17.

Mary Young lies on the North side of York Street, and is the property of them the said William Young and Mary Young Now this Indenture Witnesseth that the said William Young and Mary Young for and in consideration of the sum of Ten pounds current money to them in hand paid by the said John M. Wain, and Joseph Townsend and, the receipt whereof they the said, William Young and Mary Young, doth, acknowledge, and themselves to be fully satisfied, contented and paid, hath and by these Presents, doth give grant bargain sell alien Enfeoff and confirm unto them, the said, John M. Wain, and Joseph Townsend, for the use of the Society of the people called Quakers, for the purpose of being occupied, as a meeting house and Burying ground for the said Society, all that part of the said Two Lots or parcels of ground, being part of Lot number