William Gibson (Ck. Balt. County)

The following Deed Executed by Mary Bunker was prepared at her request — her husband having been absent for about six years she had reason to expect he was deceased and she was desirous the property should be conveyed to the society of Friends — as her connections were Interred in their burying Ground and it was where she expected to be laid. — some short time after (before her Decease) her husband returned, who having a life Estate in the Property, rendered her title incomplete, Friends therefore never applied for possession.
