As the Committee appointed in the Second month last, on the concern of the Yearly meeting for the promotion of the School Learning of the children of the African race in the families of friends - agree to report - That several of our members have visited nearly all the families that have such persons in them, and have the satisfaction to find that the concern is pretty generally attended to, by friends - many of them are progressing in their School Learning but some instances of neglect are apparent, and further caretorn must be acknowledged to be necessary.
