

Love is in a good degree maintained amongst us, Tale bearing and Detraction mostly discouraged, and no apparent differences.

3rd We believe some friends endeavour by example and precept to educate their Children and those under their care in plainness of speech, deportment, and apparel, to guard them from reading pernicious Books, and from the corrupt conversation of the World. Also to encourage their reading the Scriptures. But we think there is considerable room for improvement in these respects.

4th Friends are clear of importing, vending, Distilling, and as far as we know of the unnecessary use of spirituous liquors and of attending at Taverns, or frequenting places of diversion. And a good degree of moderation and temperance observed.

The necessities of the Poor are attended to, and they relieved, and care is taken to promote the School education of their Children.

6th In a good degree clear as far as appears respecting the particulars of this Query.

7th We know of no deficiency in the particulars of this Query.

8th Friends are concerned to bear a testimony against Slavery, those under our direction are provided for, and some attention paid to their useful learning.

9th Endeavours are used to deal with offenders nearly as recommended.
