

selected, approved, and directed to be forwarded to the quarter, Margaret Tyson Martha Norberry, Elizabeth Balderson Mary McEllicott and Elizabeth Ellicott were appointed to attend therewith by whom 20 dollars was forwarded toward the yearly meeting stock.

1st Ans^r Our first day morning meetings are generally well attended, but deficiencies are still apparent in the attendance of our other meetings, friends are mostly careful to avoid unbecoming behaviour therein, also to observe the hour.

2nd Ans^r Many friends are concerned to maintain love towards each other as becomes our profession, also to discourage tale bearing and detraction and when differences arise, use endeavours to end them, yet deficiencies in these particulars are still apparent.

3rd Ans^r Some friends ¹⁵⁷are in a good degree concerned to educate their children and those under their care, in plainness of speech, deportment, and apparel, also to guard them against reading pernicious books, and from the corrupt conversation of the world, and encourage their frequent reading the holy scriptures, yet there is an evident lack of concern in many.

4th Ans^r Friends are in a good degree clear of the particulars mentioned in the forepart of this query, and many friends are careful to observe moderation and temperance.

5th Ans^r The necessities of the poor and the circumstances of those who may appear likely to require aid, are inspected and they in a good degree relieved, and care is taken to promote the school education of their children.
