

had and accepted.

The Representatives to the Quarterly meeting, reported their attendance.

The case of Rebecca Bolster was continued. Martha Hobby, and Eleanor Henry, were continued to write with men friends in paying further attention to the case of Deborah Taylor, and Betty Henry was released at her request.

The committee in Ann Chamberlains case reported, that, they had had an opportunity with her, and did not think her in a suitable disposition to condemn her out going in marriage. They some friends were continued to join the men in preparing a testimony against her, if they should see no cause to forbear.

The friends appointed to attend the marriage of Sarah Price and Jane Trimble, reported it orderly accomplished.

Catharine M. Linn being present, the meeting united in appointing her to the station of assistant clerk.

The friends relative to Mary Ann Roster reported they had found nothing to prevent her procedure with Elizabeth Goldsmith.

they were therefore left at liberty to accomplish their marriage agreeably to our rules, and the same friends continued to attend and report.

The committee to correct and read the minutes were continued.

Ann Vincent requested to be received into membership with friends Martha Cary, Dorothy Hopkins, and Ann Lyon were appointed to pay her a visit in company with men friends, and report.

Michelle M. Mott, and Hannah Mott, were appointed to write with men friends in preparing a testimony against Deborah Lecker. if they should see no cause to forbear.

The meeting ends

At Baltimore Monthly meeting of Women friends for the Western District held the 6th of 4th month, 1825.

Representatives were present. The committee in Rebecca Bolsters case produced the following report, viz. "We have had an opportunity with Rebecca Bolster, since last meeting to a good degree of satisfaction, and she