

continued in the case of Sarah Fisher. Report that we have had another opportunity with her, and she having manifested a desire that her case should be continued under the care of friends sometime longer. We have felt a freedom to prepare a testimony of disavowment against her at this time. Isaac Wilson, Hugh Balderson
Elizabeth Evans, Parnassia Dukehart

The meeting concluded

At Baltimore Monthly meeting of women friends for the western district held the 6th & 12th moth 1822
Representatives present

The Representatives to the Quarterly meeting reported their attendance.

Elizabeth Thomas returned the minute granted her last month, with an endorsement expressive of her having acceptably attended the Quarterly meeting Lavinia Northy, Parnassia Dukehart, Edith Scott requested to be released from the station of overseers.

Michael Mason, Rebecca Proctor, Pate Burgeys, Elizabeth Evans, Mike Lafayette, Betty Henry and Ann Tison, were appointed to take the subject under consideration and if way should open propose other names for the approbation of next meeting

The following extract from the minutes of our late yearly meeting and the epistles from several yearly meetings corresponding with ours, were read down through the Quarterly, were acceptably read

An extract from the minutes of the yearly meeting of women friends held in Baltimore by adjournments from the 28th of the 10th moth to the 1st of the 11th inclusive 1822

The queries with their several answers were read, and in deliberating upon the important subjects brought into view the living members of the Church had to go down into suffering from a belief, that in many minds, the seed of the Kingdom is in captivity to the spirit of this world, hence weakness, abounds, and the precious testimonies of truth given this people to bear, are lightly esteemed, or supposed to fall to the ground — "By their fruits ye shall know them" — Amongst the various evidences of a want of submission to the purifying principles power of the word of Life, are rents and divisions, whereby the precious harmony amongst the professed followers of the Lamb of God, who walk away are in the world, is laid waste; and no discouragements present on every hand, yet through Him, who alone