The Committee in Cassandra West's case produced the following report which was submitted to, and they continued to inform her thereof. — We of the committee in Cassandra West's case, have agreed to report that most of our number have visited her and that she still continues to be of the mind that her Duty does not require her to reunite herself to Thomas West since he left her by his own voluntary act. We are also of the judgment that as the Meeting has once acted upon the case, that the mere change of form in which it has been introduced there again does not alter the nature of the complaint nor justify a different conclusion. We therefore recommend that Cassandra West be left to the dictates of her own conscience, and the committee be discharged from further care in her case, which we submit
