Whereas

Justin McIntosh, of the city of New York, son of James Henry McIntosh and the late Claire Justin McIntosh, and Margaret Millicent Carey, daughter of the late Anthony Morris Carey and Margaret Thomas Carey, having made known their intentions of marriage with each other before a Monthly Meeting of Friends held at Baltimore, Maryland, their proposal of marriage was allowed by the said meeting.

Now, these are to certify, that for the solemnization of their marriage, this twenty-sixth day of the sixth month, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred, thirty-two, they, the said Justin McIntosh and Margaret Millicent Carey, appeared in a Public Meeting of Friends and held at Homewood, Baltimore, Maryland, and Justin McIntosh, taking Margaret Millicent Carey by the hand, declared that he took her, Margaret Millicent Carey, to be his wife, promising with Divine Assistance, to be unto her a loving and faithful husband so long as they both shall live. And then Margaret Millicent Carey did in like manner declare that she took him, Justin McIntosh to be her husband, promising with Divine Assistance to be unto him a loving and faithful
