

taking the said Elsie Lorine Tollefson by the hand, did openly declare to the following effect: "In the presence of the Lord, and before these our friends, I take thee, Elsie Lorine to be ^{my} wife, promising with divine assistance, to be unto thee a loving and faithful husband, as long as we both shall live."

And the said Elsie Lorine Tollefson did then and there declare in like manner: In the presence of the Lord and before these our friends, I take thee, Charles Edward, to be my husband, promising with divine assistance, to be unto thee a loving and faithful wife, as long as we both shall live."

And the said Charles Edward Carter and Elsie Lorine Tollefson, as further confirmation thereof, have hereunto set their hands, she, according to the custom of marriage, adopting the name of her husband.

Charles E. Carter

Elsie Tollefson Carter

And we whose names are hereunto subscribed; being present at the solemnization of their said marriage, have set our hands as witnesses the day and year above written.
