

John Montgomery Sexton

of Baltimore City, and the State of Maryland, son of Captain Horatio Clay Sexton, and Ruth Montgomery, his wife, of Green River, Vermont and

Lois Agnes Forbes

of Baltimore City, and the State of Maryland, daughter of Don Walling Forbes, and Stella Riley, his wife of Raysville, Indiana having declared their intentions of marriage with each other to their respective monthly meetings.

Washington Monthly Meeting, Baltimore Yearly Meeting and Raysville Monthly Meeting, Indiana Yearly Meeting, and having asked Friends in Baltimore to assume the oversight of their marriage, Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends, Homewood and Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends, Stony Run, ~ according to the good order used among them, having found no objections and having received the consent of their parents, all meetings approved their intentions.

Now this is to certify that for the full accomplishment of their intentions, on the twentieth day of the sixth month in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-four, John Montgomery Sexton and Lois Agnes Forbes appeared in an appointed meeting for worship at Stony Run Meeting House under the care of the Homewood and the Stony Run Friends Meetings, and in the presence of a committee of oversight for that purpose, John Montgomery Sexton taking Lois Agnes Forbes by the hand declared unto her, "In the presence of God, and these our friends, I take thee, Lois, to be my wife, promising with divine assistance to be unto thee a loving and faithful husband as long as we both shall live," and Lois Agnes Forbes taking John Montgomery Sexton by the hand declared unto him, "In the presence of God, and these our friends, I take thee, John, to be my husband, promising with divine assistance to be unto thee a loving and faithful wife as long as we both shall live."

In token of these vows they exchanged rings.

And in further confirmation, John Montgomery Sexton and Lois Agnes Forbes, she according to the custom of marriage adopting the surname of her husband, did then and thereupon sign this certificate.
