The following was produced from the Quarterly meeting —
At Baltimore Quarterly meeting held the 4th of the 11th mo 1811 —

One of the Committee appointed to attend on the request forwarded to the ~~Quarterly~~ meeting for an explanation of the decision of that meeting in relation to the Buying

9B
Grounds situate at the Eastern end of this City, reported, they nearly all attended, & the following explanatory minute minute being produced & read the Clerk was directed to forward a Copy thereof to each of the monthly meetings concerned — Signed on behalf of this meeting
Viz — ~~that~~ & the succeeding minute —
And again extracted from the minutes of the Quarterly meeting —
Wm. Encoworth Secy

The following Entry was then recorded —

"And while we believe in the regular order of Society & the propriety of submitting to the conclusion of Superior meetings, we are also impressed with a belief that the principle of Right has not become changed by the said explanation, & as this meeting has not had the opportunity of being so fully heard on the subject as we apprehended the nature of the case required — we regret that we cannot unite in giving our assent thereto, believing that if the subject was clearly investigated, a different construction would be placed on the original conclusion of the Quarterly meeting"
