

Sept. 10. 1819 — This day was our monthly meeting in course — was attended by a ^{select} Committee appointed by the last Quarterly meeting — namely — Samuel Thomas, Samuel Thomas, Wm Thomas, David Proctor, Samuel C. Connel & Abraham Haff — their business was to deliver a copy of a minute of said meeting, the result of which was to discontinue of the monthly meeting & to attach the members that lately composed it, to the monthly meeting for the Western District — ~~the~~ some of them were engaged the reading of it as soon as the meeting for business opened in order that the conclusion might be carried into effect prior to the transacting of any business, or the introduction of any subject whatever — but their plan not agreeing with the ideas of most of the members present — some alteration ensued respecting it — divers of the members of the meeting were opinion that after ^{the minute} it was laid on the Table, it was the right of the meeting to take the subject up when it might appear seasonable, without being compelled thereto in
