

John Curran

34

I have been called upon to say whether all the Acts of Assembly, passed by the Legislature of Maryland, in relation to the property held by the Society of Friends on the Eastern Side of Jones's Halls, in the City of Baltimore, were under the view of Mr.
Pentney and myself, when we were consulted about the title to this property.
In answer, I have to reply that all the Acts of Assembly on this subject were not only submitted to our examination, but that they also underwent our mature and deliberate consideration.
(By a