

Esteemed Friend Samuel Carey

Annexed are the reports respecting the Brookes and Lukins. They were thought by the Committee to behave with great openness and Candour.

They find themselves under unpleasant circumstances here, because, whilst on the one hand, they have rendered themselves obnoxious to Friends, they cannot write with the rough vulgar HICKSITES of these parts. ^{on the other} They are far from being satisfied to remain with them, and several of them have entirely left them, and others of them are threatening to do so.

My Uncle George Brantingham who formerly lived in Baltimore speaks familiarly of thee and of N. Poplein, as well as some other friends in Baltimore. He now resides about 18 miles East of Marlborough and is very comfortably circumstanced.

With sentiments of esteem I remain thy Friend
Marten Brantingham.

P. Edward Brooke and Hannah Lukins are married, and have a son, named Alfred - won't a certificate be requisite? - This makes troublesome work
