

At Indian Spring Preparative 9 Meeting in unity with the Ancient monthly meetings of friends held the 2nd day of the 3rd month 1831.

Two of the Monthly Meetings Committee present — The overseers absent.

The meeting proceeded to the reading of the first, second and ninth queries.

The answers agreed to as follows.

1st all meetings have been kept except one, which was prevented by the inclemency of the weather, unbecoming behaviour generally avoided, and the hour in a good degree observed.

2nd Love is maintained amongst us as recommended, tale bearing and detrac-tion discouraged, no apparent differences.

3rd Care is taken to deal with offenders except those who have desperated from us — we trust as recomm-
