The committee in the case of Chas. J. Hopkins produced a testimony of disavowment (as follows) against him which being approved the clerk is directed to sign it and the Committee is continued for further compliance with the discipline.

"Chas. J. Hopkins has so far departed from the good order of our Society as to wholly neglect the attendance of our meetings: He has been writing to and visited by a Committee on account thereof without producing any apparent effect, or change in his conduct. We therefore disown him from membership with us."

The committee to collect money for the use of this meeting is continued.
