

1st Answer All of our meetings for Worship and Discipline have been held; those on First day Mornings have been attended by our members generally; those in the evening and middle of the week have been small but have shown an increase in size - Unbecoming behavior has been avoided and most Friends have been punctual in attendance

2nd Answer We believe Friends have maintained love towards each other becoming our Christian profession - Talebearing and Detraction have been discouraged - and no differences have been known amongst us

3rd Answer We believe that most Friends have endeavored by example and precept to bring up their children and those under their care, in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, and in that plainness and simplicity of life which the gospel requires they have endeavored to guard them against reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world and have encouraged them to read the Holy Scriptures

Fourth Answer - We believe our testimony to a Free Gospel Ministry has been generally maintained

5th Answer We believe with a few exceptions Friends ^{have} maintained our testimony against the use of all intoxicating drinks, and have avoided Drinking Houses, and frivolous and demoralizing places of diversion

6th Answer - The necessities of the poor have been inspected and when occasion has arisen relief has been afforded

7th Answer - Friends' children have been placed at School, and when practicable under the care of Friends

8th Answer - We believe Friends ^{have} maintained a faithful testimony against Oaths, Military Services, clandestine trade, prize goods and Lotteries and Slavery

9th Answer Friends have appeared to be careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to control or engaging in hazardous or speculative trade - We believe they have been just in their dealings and punctual
