

careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances, and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to control, or in engaging in hazardous or speculative trade - we believe they have been just in their dealings and punctual in complying with their engagements

Answer 10th Care has generally been taken to deal with offenders seasonably, and when done, it has been impartially & in the spirit of meekness & love

Answer 11th None

Answer 12th None

and then concluded

Calat Winslow Clerk

At Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends for the Eastern and Western Districts held 11th month 4th 1880 - all the Overseers present

The Committee to bring forward the name of a friend to serve as assistant Clerk for the ensuing year, propose James Lang Jr., who was approved, and appointed to the service

The Committee to Revise our Records was continued

The Representatives to our late Quarterly Meeting reported that all attended

The following Report of our School Committee was read and directed to be placed upon our minutes -

To Balt. Monthly Meeting of Friends
3rd Annual Report of Com^{tee} of Friends Academy for the Scholastic Year ending 6th mo 15th 80

The School was continued under the charge of Lucius D Tuttle, to whom, according to the Contract entered into the previous year, the Committee had given the management of the School, subject to certain conditions

62 Pupils were enrolled during the year, of whom 44 were boys and 18 were girls

8 Teachers, including the Principal, were employed, among whom were French & German Instructors.

Special attention was given to Botany & Physiology, and classes were taken to the country for flowers & various animals were dissected for practical investigation

over