

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends.

Dear Friends,

Helen Balkeville Harris, a member of this meeting, has removed to Baltimore in the compass of yours, and, upon inquiry made relative to her conduct and respecting debts, nothing appears to prevent the issuing of a certificate on her behalf: we therefore recommend her to your Christian care and remain with us

Your Friends

by delaying his case; that in all probability we know as much about him now and can judge as well in regard to it as we could a month or more hence, and that we could not reasonably refuse to admit him as a member. Of course his preaching is a matter for separate, and future consideration, although that is not altogether satisfactory, we would approve of his being united to the church; he is an honest good man, and we hope and believe he will be amenable to eldership; we shall have to trust for that - that was the general feeling - but one dissenting voice, and he afterwards yielded.

Yesterday Mr. Bond at our meeting spoke a few words to satisfaction.

We have no doubt the monthly meeting will consider it from all points, carefully and prayerfully.

We leave the matter to its judgment. Mr. J. Whitwell has gone on a business trip to Phil^a.

We are generally well.

Truly thy friend,

James C. Hendrick
