

3rd. 40 Shares National Mechanics Bank Stock worth about $480 - The remnant of a legacy from Nicholas Popplein Senr.

4th. $2000 of Balto 6% Loan, payable 1890, and $532.95 in Central Savings Bank - This is the proceeds of an old legacy of $500. from Andrew Schofield of Alexandria, for Educating poor children of Baltimore Monthly Meeting - There being none such for many years, the interest accumulated, and is now being applied to the support of Mission Schools on Federal Street

on behalf of the Trustees
John C Thomas

Balto 1st Mo 6th 1886

Secy

This meeting Authorized the Trustees to deposit the certificates of Stock belonging to this meeting, with our Treasurers for Safe Keeping

John Nicholson, Benj P Moore and James C Thomas, were appointed to act, with a similar Committee of women friends, as an Educational Committee

Our late Quarterly Meeting sent to us the following minute, consenting to the setting up of Lincoln Meeting for Worship in Loudon County Va -

"At Baltimore Quarterly Meeting of Friends held 12th Mo 21st 1885. The Establishment of a meeting for worship at Lincoln Co as proposed by Baltimore Monthly Meeting was united with by this Meeting

John C Thomas
Susan R Matthews

Lincoln Meeting for worship, thus having the approval of our Monthly & Quarterly meetings, was set up in accordance with the request of its members and then concluded

Caleb Winsted Clerk