The Committee in the case of Evan Poulteney produced the following Report

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends
Dear Friends

Evan Poulteney has so far departed from the good order of our Religious Society, as to neglect for a long period of time the attendance of our meetings, and his general conduct and manner of life have been unbefitting our Christian profession.

The Overseers and a committee appointed by the Monthly Meeting have sought diligently to procure an interview with him, which he has not granted.

The Committee by correspondence, have endeavored to bring him to a sense of his departure but he manifests no disposition to change his course or condemn his conduct.

We therefore recommend that a testimony of disownment be issued against him as a member of our Religious Society.

While performing this duty, we sincerely desire that through the mercy of God in Christ Jesus, he may be brought through repentance
