

of business without undue haste

It was agreed to refer the subject to our next Monthly Meeting for its serious consideration

The 1st 2nd and 10th Queries were read and the following answers agreed upon and directed to be forwarded to our ensuing Quarterly Meeting to attend which as our Representatives John Nicholson, Thomas R. Matthews Jr., Edward E. McKenzie and Simon Martinet, were appointed

Answer 1st

All of our meetings for worship and discipline have been held - those on First-day mornings have been attended by our members generally; those on First-day Evening, and in the middle of the week have been neglected by many

Unbecoming behavior has been avoided

Answer 2nd Friends have been preserved in Christian Love, one towards another - Tale bearing and detraction have been avoided - No differences known amongst us

Answer 10th Care ^{generally} has been taken to deal with offenders seasonably, and when done, it has been impartially and in the spirit of meekness and love -

And then Concluded

4 overseers present

Our dear friend James C. Thomas laid before this meeting a concern, in the love of the gospel, to visit the families comprising the meeting as way may open for it - The meeting fully united with him in this concern and encouraged him to proceed therein as the Lord may direct - James C. Barry & John C. Thomas were appointed to make arrangements in furtherance of his concern and accompanying him as way may open

The Committee in the case of Evan & Poultney was continued to prepare a testimony of Disownment against him and produce to our next meeting
