

the duties of the Treasurer was continued All the queries were read in this meeting and the following answers adopted and directed to be forwarded to our ensuing Quarterly Meeting; to attend which as our representatives we appoint Francis G. Allinson, Joseph P. Elliott, John C. Thomas and Arthur J. Lawrence who were directed to report to our next meeting

1st Ans. - All our meetings for worship and discipline have been held - Those on First Day mornings have been attended by our members generally so far as practicable - Those in the middle of the week and on First day evenings have been neglected by many - Unbecoming behavior has been avoided -

2nd Ans. Friends have been preserved in Christian love one toward the other - Talebearing and detraction have been discouraged - No differences known among us -

3rd Ans. Most Friends endeavor by example and precept to bring up their children and those as queried after and they have encouraged them to read the Holy Scriptures

4th Ans. - Our testimony to a free Gospel Min istry has been maintained agreeably to our discipline - 5th Ans. - With a few exceptions Friends have maintained their testimony against the use of intoxicating liquors and have avoided drinking houses and demoralizing places of diversion

6th Ans. The necessities of the poor have been inspected and advice and relief have been extended when thought necessary

7th Ans. Friends Children of suitable age have attended School and when practicable Schools under the care of Friends

8th Ans. - Our testimony againstaths, Military Services, Claudestine Trade, prize goods, Lotteries and Slavery has been maintained

9th Ans. Friends have appeared careful to live within the bounds of their Circumstances; to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage or engaging in hazardous or speculative trade - We believe they have been just in their ~~deals~~ dealings and punctual in complying with their engagements -

10th Ans. Care has not always been taken to deal with offenders Seasonably - but when done it has been done impartially, and in the
