

Ashlon Monthly Meeting, with reference to the transfer of the title of the Meeting house property there, from the trustees of this meeting to trustees to be named by Ashlon Monthly Meeting.

The subject was referred to the trustees of this meeting for their consideration with directions to report thereon to our next meeting. The trustees were also directed to examine into and report as to the condition of the title of the meeting house property at Lincoln and whether any transfer of the same would be advisable.

It was concluded to suspend the 1st day Evening Meetings from 6th Mo 16th on which day no evening meeting will be held, until 9th Month 15th on which day the Evening Meetings will be resumed.

The Reparatore Meeting on Ministry and Oversight informed this meeting that John C. Thomas having frequently appeared in the Ministry, they felt that it was seasonable that the subject should claim the attention of this meeting. After serious consideration by both men and women friends, this meeting is united in believing that a gift in the Ministry has been committed to him; and our clerks were directed to forward a copy of this minute to the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight for its approbation - And then concluded.

James Carey Jr.
