At Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends for the Eastern and Western Districts held 9th Mo 3rd 1889

James C. Thomas stated that it had been on his mind for considerable time that it would be advisable to make some change in the manner of holding our First Day Evening Meetings by making them more teaching in their character. After serious consideration Francis L. King, James C. Thomas, John C. Nicholson and Joseph P. Elliott were appointed who in conjunction with a similar Committee of Women Friends should bring forward to our next Meeting the names of a Committee to consider the entire subject and report thereon to this Meeting. All the Queries were read in this Meeting and the following answers adopted and directed to be forwarded to our next Quarterly Meeting to attend which as our representatives, we have appointed James C. Thomas, Joseph P. Elliott, James Carey Jr and John C. Thomas, who were directed to report to our next Meeting.
