are taught the duties pertaining to house keeping, Cooking, Setting tables and Caring for bed rooms- Young Folks Union, having a Care of the Sociable. Means of the Social life among the young people attending the Mission Meeting - They have the Care of the Library, opening the room Sun evenings in the week and lending the Members books for Home reading - One or two Classes are provided with instruction in different Branches of Study; Simple entertainments are given and occasional lectures -

Temperance work is Carried on by several of our Members in various lines and some of our workers are frequently given the opportunity to address Bible Schools of other Denominations on this subject -

The Sewing Sewing Meeting at Eutaw and Monument Streets has been reopened for the Season giving out work to the deserving poor. Bible Schools are Carried on at Eutaw and Monument Streets and at the Mission on First day Mornings and the Mission School has also an afternoon Session -

At Eutaw and Monument Streets the average attendance is about 43 Scholars, including three Bible Classes of adults, and 9 teachers - At Light Street the average attendance is about 130 Scholars in the Morning and 10 teachers -

In addition to these distinct lines of effort Several different Committees are Carrying on Such work as Annual there is, as Magic Lantern Exhibitions with Gospel views and tracts, Cottage Meetings, showing hospitality to Strangers at our Meetings by inviting them to Seats &c

There is not a single department of our work that is not Capable of extension and more workers, and many of its branches are Crippled for lack of assistance - In view of this End and of the abundant reward which Comes to the faithful worker in the field, not only in the final "well done", but in the daily consciousness of following in the foot steps of our Divine Master, we feel free to urge all the members of our Meeting to Consider Carefully whether they are doing as