The following report was received from Friends Association for Christian Work, which was Satisfactory

The Friends Association for Christian work held its Closing Meeting before the Summer recess 5th Mo 7th 1890

A Synopsis of the reports filed by the Chairman of Committees is as follows.

The Bible School reports Smaller average attendance but interest Nevertheless Maintained

The Sewing Meeting has held 9 Mend Meetings, cutting out 147 garments, and giving 18 woman work, with a total expense of $7.45

The Hospitality Committee have given earnest attention to their work, believing that Cordiality and attention to Strangers will build up our meeting and perhaps draw them into the Redeemers Kingdom — They also express an earnest wish that all our members will make it a point to Speak with Strangers —

The Young Womens Fellowship Union were never in a more flourishing Condition than this Winter — A Childrens Union, with

Bi-Monthly meetings has been started with a large membership for the purpose of interesting them in Home and Foreign Mission work Temperance and Kindness to Animals

The temperance Committee have Distributed 7700 pages of Temperance tracts and 110 S.S. papers. Eleven meetings and Sabbath Schools with an average attendance of 117 have been addressed — There is increasing interest in the work and the Cause is making progress —

From Federal Hill the Young Fellows Union report the Book-keeping and Penmanship Classes closed for the Season — Reading Room Still open with an average attendance of 15 to 25 — An informal talk by Dr Chaddock on the human body, Spelling bees and debates have been enjoyed and kept up the interest

The First Day School has an average of 123 Scholars and 12 Teachers — The Bible Class taught by Joseph P. Elliott has been larger than ever before but are soon close. Some Eight or ten members of the School have been Married and a Young Peoples Prayer