And then Concluded - James Carey Clerk -

And cordially united with the Concern of our dear Friend and he was set at liberty and encouraged to pursue the same, under the guidance of the Lord, he being a Minister in unity and good Esteem amongst us.

In liberating our beloved Friend for this important service to which we believe he has been called we commend him to God and to the Christian Care and Sympathy of those to whom he may come, trusting that his labors may be owned and richly blessed of the Lord.
Our Clerks were directed to furnish him with a copy of this minute and sign it on our behalf.
